Eighteen-year-old Lola Devine I Seen in Georgetown with Two Women.

NEVER REACHED UNCLE'S HOME

Miss Lota Devine, eighteen years old, a daughter of Joseph E. Devine, rail-ried foreman, left her home in German-town, Md. on Thursday morning to visit her uncle, William Hudson, of £2. M Street Southwest, but she did not appear at the Hudson home and her whereabouts are unknown to relatives.

An element of mystery was injected into the disappearance of the girl when her father told the police that his daughter was seen in Georgetown on Friday morning with two colored women, both of whom have unasvory pelice records. Joseph Devine said his daughter and the colored women were seen by a white woman who has known Miss Devine for several years. Devine is certain the information considered by the police that a city-wide search is being made for the coored women, who will be arrested and held until they explain the disappearance of the girl or convince the authorities they were not in the company of Miss Devine.

He scouts the theory that the girl may have become lost. Miss Devine is old enough to have found her way to Hudson's home even though she is a shout a shout 18 do pounds. She is a bloud. Her hair is light and her eyes are blue. When her safe the form he said good-by to her father in Gerbard of the girl, and every pollceman in the city has been instructed by head-quarters to make every effort to find trace of her.
